Preparation for First Communion

September 2018 to June 2019

In our parish, families prepare together for First Communion by attending group sessions led by trained catechists. Preparation classes are held at the parish church. The child and at least one parent attend all sessions together. The child's First Communion will be celebrated with the family on the weekend following the completion of classes at their choice of Sunday Mass.

Families are invited by school groups to prepare their child for this sacrament and register by bringing a completed registration package to one of the Information Sessions listed below. To avoid crowding, Mass times are limited and will be assigned on a first come, first served basis.
